

EPILEPSY ASSOCIATION
Policy on Responding to Requests for Information

The Epilepsy Association is committed to responding to questions that come from all consumers regarding accredited programs and services and other information which persons may use to make informed choices about providers/services.